LISTENING IN LENT

If today you hear His voice, harden not your hearts

Psalm 95

Lent is a time in which the Church, guided by a sense of maternal care, invites us to place the mystery of God back in the center of our lives, in order to find renewal in our faith and keep our hearts from being consumed by the anxieties and distractions of daily life.

Every path toward conversion begins by allowing the Word of God to touch our hearts and welcoming it with a docile spirit. There is a relationship between the Word, our acceptance of it and the transformation it brings about.

For this reason, the Lenten journey is a welcome opportunity to heed the voice of the Lord and renew our commitment to following Christ, accompanying Him on the road to Jerusalem, where the mystery of His Passion, death and Resurrection will be fulfilled.

FOR THE PARISH THIS YEAR!

From Deacon Jim Hallman, Pastoral Associate

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Jesus said, "Give me a drink." In other words, I thirst, but not for the water in the well. No, there is a thirsting for the woman's soul.

He knew how darkened her soul was, how sinful her life had been. But He didn't care about what she had done, but what she could do. He wants her soul to change and be cleansed and that can only happen through the living waters that Jesus has. That is the same conversation Jesus wants to have with every soul in danger of losing their eternal life.

"I thirst" was one of the seven words Jesus spoke while hanging on the Cross. There He saw every soul, yours and mine, and He thirsted for us. "I thirst," He says, come back, your sins are forgiven.

Both at the well and on the Cross, we see a Jesus who is patient, compassionate and full of love. He has a heart so full of empathy and love that we can't even imagine the magnitude of the word love.

But, He won't help us if we don't want to be helped. There is no mercy for those who walk away from His calling.

What Jesus is telling us at the well, what He is telling us at the Cross, and what He is telling us today is I am with you always, my love is never failing regardless of our shortcomings, regardless of how many times we fail.

There is always today, a "right now moment" to change our ways, seek His forgiveness and do our best to move forward, with the guidance of the Holy Spirit. He must be our courage.

We are never too good to ask for God's help and He is never too busy to provide it. Every moment of every day, we have the gift of being able to talk to God in the silence of our hearts. And He responds with words of wisdom in our thoughts and our encounters. "Today if you hear His voice, harden not your hearts."

Connect with God by taking breaks throughout the day and just silently pause, reflecting on Jesus' unbearable pain for you and me on that Cross. And, if you are sincere, know that somehow, somewhere, at His time He will talk to you. Lent is moving along and before we know it Good Friday will be here. And on that day, on that Cross on the hill of Calvary, we can hear Jesus say, I thirst for your soul.

Deacon Jim Hallman

Reflections on the Readings

READING I: Exodus 17:3-7 — Is the Lord in our midst or not?

◆ In the Exodus reading, the Israelites grumble about their experience in the desert. Their thirst represents Israel's real question, "Why did God make us leave Egypt?" Yahweh responds graciously to the needs of the people.

READING II: Romans 5:1-2, 5-8 — We are at peace with God through Christ.

◆ The wonder of God's free gift of salvation in Jesus is the subject of the passage from Paul's Letter to the Romans. God responds to our need with compassion and mercy. God's love is poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit.

GOSPEL: John 4:5-42 — Whoever drinks the water I give, will never thirst again.

◆ In the story of the Samaritan woman, Jesus uses water as a symbol of God's revelation and God's Spirit. The exchange between Jesus and the woman causes conversion to take place. The woman identifies Jesus several times, each time with greater understanding. First, he was a Jewish man, then a prophet, and finally she makes a comment about the Messiah.

Saint of the Week

St. Felicity and St. Perpetua Late Second Century-203

Many centuries ago, in the desert lands of North Africa now populated by tens of millions of adherents of Islam, there was once a thriving Catholic Church. Dioceses, bishops, theologians, shrines, cemeteries, schools, monasteries, convents, and saints filled the towns hugging the southern coast of the Mediterranean Sea. This vibrant Catholicism gave birth to, and was inspired by, the witness of numerous martyrs. Many of their names are known, among them, Felicity and Perpetua. Few documents in Church history can match the raw power of the first person and eyewitness account of the martyrdom of Perpetua and Felicity. They were arrested for their Christian faith, imprisoned together, suffered together. They died together in 203 A.D. in Carthage, North Africa, executed in a sandy arena in a spectacle of cruelty before a bloodthirsty crowd.

Felicity was a slave. She was pregnant when jailed. She gave birth a few days before her martyrdom. Her child would be raised by Christian women in Carthage. Vivia Perpetua, twenty-two years old, was married, a noblewoman, and a new mother whose baby was still nursing. Her pagan father begged his favorite daughter to renounce her Christian faith, but to no avail.

Perpetua herself recorded the events leading up to her martyrdom, while an eyewitness to her death completed the text later. When they were first thrown into the arena, Perpetua and Felicity were attacked by a rabid heifer which was chosen because it shared the same sex as its victims. The women were grievously injured by the mad cow and then removed from the arena until gladiators were brought in to conclude the spectacle. When the women were brought back into the arena, the executioners carried out their duties quickly, though Perpetua had to guide the gladiator's sword to her throat after he first painfully struck a bone instead of a vein.

The vivid description of their deaths was so moving that it was faithfully preserved down through the centuries and has come to us largely intact. The fact that both women, both mothers who loved their children, were willing to die rather than renounce their faith, is a testament to the revolutionary message of Jesus Christ. Jesus revealed His true origins, His high dignity, and His ultimate purpose. When early Christians saw themselves as Jesus saw them, and embraced their identity and dignity as a "child of God," "made in God's image and likeness," and "worthy of the blood of the Lamb," they understood that God's Son died for them as much as He died for anyone else, and they could stand together, tall and fortified in their faith. Felicity and Perpetua clung to the love of Jesus and their identity and dignity as Christians in the face of imprisonment, ridicule, torture, pain, and death.

Sts. Perpetua and Felicity are patron saints of expectant mothers, widows and butchers. Their memorial is celebrated on March 7.

~ MEN OF THE CATHOLIC FAITH ~

Our Parish has an active and vibrant men's group exploring issues we, as Catholic men, are confronted with and need to address. Our mission is to defend the Roman Catholic faith, sacraments, saints, and traditions. We pray the Rosary as a group. We deepen our knowledge of Catholicism, from Scripture, guest speakers, and Catholic teachings. We are helping hands to the Parish.

In the organ, the many pipes and voices must form a unity.... Now, this is an image of our community in the Church. Just as in the organ an expert hand must constantly bring disharmony back to consonance, so we in the Church, in the variety of our gifts and charisms, always need to find anew, through our communion in faith, harmony in the praise of God and in fraternal love.

POPE BENEDICT XVI, REMARKS AT THE BLESSING OF THE NEW ORGAN IN THE OLD CHAPEL, REGENSBURG, GERMANY"

WHEN YOU PRAY

A CLEAR PATH TO A DEEPER RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

You know prayer is important but still find it challenging. Perhaps it's hard to find time, or you're unsure what to do when you pray. Or maybe you feel discouraged by your weaknesses and your inability to overcome them.

If you have any of these feelings, you are not alone. Many of the saints struggled in prayer. They were like us. But each time they fell, they got up again and learned to rely more on God's grace.

What God did in the lives of countless saints, he wants to do in the lives of ordinary people like us. And that's what this study is about: the journey of prayer God wants to take us on.

Wildwood Catholic Academy

PreK to 12th Grade 609-522-7257

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Let us continue to pray for all the students and their families, teachers, staff, Board, PTA, volunteers, alumni and benefactors of Wildwood Catholic Academy, our wonderful Parish school.

Let each of us also prayerfully consider helping a student in need. Our generous contributions to the Academy's Help Sponsor a Student program would directly help students in need to continue to benefit not only from the excellent academic curriculum and extracurricular activities but, most especially, the solid Catholic and moral foundation the Academy offers to all its students. You will find information on donating to the Help Sponsor a Student program below.

Please know that I am grateful to all those who support our school with their prayers, time, talent and financial gifts. May God bless you always!

In Christ,
Fr. Mazz
