Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 10, 2026

THIS IS MY COMMANDMENT: LOVE ONE ANOTHER AS I LOVE YOU

JOHN 15:12

*If you love me, you will keep my commandments.
Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me.
And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him.*

From Sharon Mattia, Parish Office Manager

Dear Friends in Christ,

Today is the day that most countries honor mothers and I am grateful for this opportunity to reflect on the experiences of Our Blessed Mother throughout her Son's life. When God chose her to be the mother of Our Lord, she had been given the ultimate responsibility. I often wonder how she felt the first time she looked into her son's eyes. How overwhelming that moment must have been. Was she elated, overwhelmed, anxious, grateful, protective?...all the emotions that can be attributed to motherhood. How proud she must have been witnessing the love he had for his fellow men and women, not to mention the miracles he performed. When I think about all she went through throughout his short life, I am in awe. Traveling to Bethlehem – pregnant on a donkey, having no place to stay, and delivering her precious child in a stable. Escaping to Egypt to protect her son. Unable to find her son for 3 days! Witnessing every horrific thing that was done to her son after his arrest. Watching him die on the cross. The pain had to be unbearable. Yet, she bore that pain. She bore that pain knowing there was a plan. Knowing her son was sent to walk among us, to teach us, and through his suffering on the cross, our sins would be forgiven and now, in Heaven, she intervenes for us. So, on this Mother's Day let us all take a moment to thank God for his choice and thank our Blessed Mother for loving us as she loves Our Lord.

Peace & Love,
Sharon

Sentimental Squares

After Mass, stop by the display table just inside the front doors of St. Ann Church! Take home one of the "Sentimental Squares" of carpeting which were lovingly preserved from the refurbishment of the Church flooring. While they last! Reminisce with William Purdon, the creator of this chance to celebrate, retain and distribute 'pieces of our past' at St. Ann Church. As he so beautifully explains:

"Having experienced so many moments of spiritual practice, celebration, and even mourning but always purposeful prayer here, with family over 40 years to include Sunday services, special holiday Masses, in-laws re-commitment of vows at the altar, then later both of their funerals, impressed all good and reverent memories upon me nonetheless.

I thought of the red altar with all of the sacred seconds of worship, voice and verse witnessed and absorbed. Truly the foundation underfoot, of our shared faith."

Many thanks to William for his labor of love cutting, vacuuming and cleaning each of the Sentimental Squares — and freely offering them to those of us who would appreciate having a tangible, vibrant, warm memento of holy moments at our beloved St. Ann Church.

Reflections on the Readings

READING I: Acts of the Apostles 8:5-8, 14-17 — They prayed to receive the Holy Spirit.

◆ In this reading, we discover how people come to hear and believe in Jesus. The people in Samaria believed in Jesus and were baptized. Peter and John came from Jerusalem to pray over the Samaritans and lay their hands on them; a prayerful gesture of intercession and blessing that is still part of the Church's sacramental rituals.

READING II: 1 Peter 3:15-18 — Christ died for sins once for all.

◆ This reading, from the First Letter of Peter, speaks of how Christians are to live. The passage ends with a reference to the Resurrection. The risen Christ lives a new and glorious life that we who have been baptized in His name and sealed with the gift of the Spirit will also receive.

GOSPEL: John 14:15-21 — If you love me, obey my commandments.

◆ This Gospel is taken from Jesus' farewell address to his disciples. The author emphasizes the union of Jesus with the Father and with believers. In Jesus, believers also stand in relationship with the Father. This relationship is made possible and real through the gift of the Holy Spirit.
