From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we officially kick off the Parish's support of the Diocesan Annual South Jersey Catholic Ministries Appeal. When you receive a letter from Bishop Williams with information on this year's appeal, I encourage you to prayerfully review the material and consider making a donation to help support the Diocese of Camden's outreach to the needy of our South Jersey community.

The theme of this year's appeal is "Missionaries of Mercy." It is in keeping with Pope Leo XIV's call that we be local missionaries "because poverty, suffering and the desire for a greater hope have made their way to us." In supporting the Appeal, we are greatly helping those who are in most need of the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. These Works are an integral part of the mission of the Catholic Church and of the Diocesan ministries which serve the poor and marginalized, the physically challenged, and the spiritually hungry.

A Diocesan representative will speak at Masses this weekend about how our financial contributions make us Missionaries of Mercy within our Diocese. She will, I am sure, give details on how to make a donation either online or by using a donor/pledge card — you'll find the card and the QR code on page 5 of this bulletin.

Let us pray together, as we begin the mission of reaching our Parish's goal of $176,650 by December 31:

Jesus, please look kindly on the South Jersey missionary work of Bishop Williams and the Diocesan ministries. Send the Holy Spirit to guide these ministries as they reach out, on our behalf, to our neighbors in need. Thank you for the opportunity the Appeal gives us to show our love for You and for our neighbors; and to thank you for all You have given us; and to provide finances for our Diocesan ministries to use in Your Name, in accordance with Your Will, and to Your Glory. May the response of our Parish to this year's Appeal be pleasing in Your sight. Amen.

In Christ,
Fr. Mazz

May is the Month of Mary

TRAVELING STATUES OF MARY

St. Ann Church and Assumption Church each have a beautifully-encased statue of Mary available for parishioners to take home to pray with for special intentions

ST. ANN CHURCH HAS OUR LADY OF FATIMA
ASSUMPTION CHURCH HAS OUR LADY OF LOURDES

Call the Parish Office 609-522-2709 to schedule a week with the statue of your choice

Drop off and pick up is on Sundays, by the end of the last morning Mass in the sacristy of each Church

"Black Madonnas" are icons of the Virgin Mary, sometimes with the child Jesus, with dark skin. They date back to the Medieval period of history (12th to 15th centuries). They are revered artwork in churches of Catholic and Orthodox countries. There are a documented 400 to 500 Black Madonnas in Europe alone. In the older icons, Mary's skin color was darkened by environmental conditions such as candle smoke, dust, grime or oxidation of lead-based pigments.

Reflections for the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord

- ◆ Christ's resurrection is not a quaint, symbolic way of saying that he lives on in the hearts of his disciples—or that he just 'came back to life,' via resuscitation to return to the life he had before. The Resurrection is a necessary and decisive step in Jesus' exodus (see Luke 9:31) as he passes from this world to glory with the Father.
- ◆ [Christ's] Ascension is a much more important part of the story than we often realize. Yes, he goes to prepare a place for us. But he also goes to raise our humanity, which he assumed, to unimaginable heights of glory. His risen humanity, and ours, is glorified at the Father's right hand. And from that vantage point, enthroned above heaven and earth, he can pour out the Advocate, the Gift that will begin to regenerate us, making us sharers in his risen life even now as we continue to walk the dusty roads of this fallen world.

KIDNEY FOR JODY

GOOD NEWS UPDATE AND THANK-YOU FROM HER HUSBAND

Thank you once again for putting the blurb in your bulletin which helped spread the word regarding Jody's need for a kidney donor. As you know, God is good. He answered our prayers April 30th when we were informed a kidney was available. Jody received the kidney on May 1st. She is currently recovering at home and looking forward to this new chapter. We are forever grateful for your kindness.

Sincerely,
Michael

O God, how praiseworthy are the praises poured out by those blessed spirits who stand before the throne of my heavenly king! How worthy of blessing are their blessings! What happiness it is to hear that melody of a most holy eternity! In it, by a most sweet blending of dissimilar voices and contrasting tones, those wondrous harmonies are produced in which all parts progress, one after the other, in continual sequence and ineffable linking of runs. On every side we hear perpetual alleluias!
