Letter from Father Wallace

Dear Parishioner,

Today we celebrate the feast of Pentecost, the birth of the Church. Its origin comes from Judaism where Pentecost or the Feast of Weeks (Shavuot) is celebrated fifty days after the second day of Passover, commemorating the giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai - the heart of the Jewish faith. In the Christian dispensation, Pentecost is celebrated fifty days after Easter Sunday, commemorating the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and first believers.

After the family, the domestic Church, (the parish) is the local gathering of the Church. In his encyclical letter "The Lay Members of Christ's Faithful People," St. John Paul II said, "It is necessary that in light of faith all rediscover the true meaning of the parish. The parish is not principally a structure, a territory, or a building, but rather, 'the family of God, a fellowship afire with a unifying spirit,' 'a familial and welcoming home,' the 'community of the faithful.'"

The parish is a family, fellowship, home and community. The parish is more precisely a family of families, a community of communities. The parish is not a collection of separate individual families or persons but a community of communities. As we seek here at Notre Dame de la Mer to embark on a renewal, a new Pentecost of sorts, we will be concentrating on creating a welcoming community, where "the love of Jesus Christ gathers us together to welcome and embrace all God's children." We will be incorporating some of the suggestions given by experts in the field of parish renewal, establishing a council of 12 to guide this renewal and we will work closely with the Parish Pastoral Council to bring our vision to fruition.

The Church began only when the Spirit's gifts were poured out and received by the Apostles. How are the gifts of the Spirit leading us into a renewal? Possibly the Spirit has been stifled by division or apathy. If our parish is going to be what God wants it to be, we cannot stifle the Spirit. We must not be ignorant of our spiritual gifts (1 Corinthians 12); we should set our hearts on them, especially those which will have the greatest effect on renewing our beloved parish.

"Come Holy Ghost, Creator blest, and in our hearts take up Thy rest ... and may the Son on us bestow the gifts that from the Spirit flow!"

Fr. Wallace

Stewards Learn Everything

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." John 14:26

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tell us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Our Stewardship tells us to pray to the Holy Spirit to put the right words in our mouths when challenged about our faith.

Misericordiae Vultus

On this Pentecost Sunday we beg the Holy Spirit to renew and strengthen in us his gifts of Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Knowledge, Courage (fortitude), reverence (piety), and Awe (fear of the Lord) and open us to all the *graces, mercies, and blessings of this Holy Year of Mercy as we continue to reflect seriously, engage prayerfully and act boldly on Pope Francis' letter which challenges us daily to be Merciful like the Father".

(MV14) .....Pope Francis continues with the relationship between justice and mercy,

"Mercy is not opposed to justice but rather expresses God's way of reaching out to the sinner, offering him a new chance to look at himself, convert, and believe. The experience of the prophet Hosea can help us see the way in which mercy surpasses justice. The era in which the prophet lived was one of the most dramatic in the history of the Jewish people. The kingdom was tottering on the edge of destruction; the people had not remained faithful to the covenant; they had wandered from God and lost the faith of their forefathers. According to human logic, it seems reasonable for God to think of rejecting an unfaithful people; they had not observed their pact with God and therefore deserved just punishment; in other words, exile. The prophet's words attest to this: "They shall not return to the land of Egypt, and Assyria shall be their king, because they have refused to return to me" (Hosea 11:5). And yet, after this invocation of justice, the prophet radically changes his speech and reveals the true face of God:

"How can I give you up, O Ephraim! How can I hand you over, O Israel! How can I make you like Admah! How can I treat you like Zebolim! My heart recoils within me, my compassion grows warm and tender. I will not execute my fierce anger, I will not again destroy Ephraim; for I am God and not man, the Holy One in your midst, and I will not come to destroy" (11:8-9). Saint Augustine, almost as if he were commenting on these words of the prophet, says: "It is easier for God to hold back anger than mercy". (13) And so it is. God's anger lasts but a moment, his mercy forever.

If God limited himself to only justice, he would cease to be God, and would instead be like human beings who ask merely that the law be respected. But mere justice is not enough. Experience shows that an appeal to justice alone will result in its destruction. This is why God goes beyond justice with his mercy and forgiveness. Yet this does not mean that justice should be devalued or rendered superfluous. On the contrary: anyone who makes a mistake must pay the price. However, this is just the beginning of conversion, not its end, because one begins to feel the tenderness and mercy of God. God does not deny justice. He rather envelopes it and surpasses it with an even greater event in which we experience love as the foundation of true justice. We must pay close attention to what Saint Paul says if we want to avoid making the same mistake for which he reproaches the Jews of his time: "For, being ignorant of righteousness that comes from God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. For Christ is the end of the law, that everyone who has faith may be justified" (Rom 10:3-4). God's justice is his mercy given to everyone as a grace that flows from the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Thus the Cross-of-Christ is God's judgement on all of us and on the whole world, because through it he offers us the certitude of love and new life". (MV22) (to begin to even understand what Pope Francis says here is to "peek into the heart of God.")

It is important for the expectant parents/guardians to arrange to attend a session 5 months before the birth and Baptism of the child. Contact the parish offices for more information.

Funerals: To be arranged with a priest and funeral director.
