Message from Rev. Joseph D. Wallace, Pastor

Dear Parishioner,

Easter is a time for unbridled joy for Catholic Christians. However, this year given the fear, anxiety and worry concerning the Covid-19 pandemic our joy seems quite muted. This is compounded by the fact that we here in the Wildwoods and around the world are not allowed to assemble in our churches to celebrate together the holiest and most profound celebration on the Christian calendar! While we have been trying to share these sacred liturgies with you live-streamed on Facebook and our website, our inability to join together in person can diminish our joy. Saying Mass and looking out on an empty church building has been painful for Fr. Steve and myself, I assure you! I can only imagine the pain and disappointment of many of you not being able to gather and celebrate Easter with your families this year on top of the worry and concern about the inability to work and draw a paycheck!

But there is Easter light in the darkness of this pandemic. Just think of the selfless nurses, doctors, healthcare professionals, EMTs and caregivers marching into the battle of an unknown disease with no known cure or inoculation. Think of the selfless educators throughout our country stepping up to bat by instructing and encouraging their students in the virtual world. Think of our police, firefighters, and all who keep us safe in uncertain times like this. I think of the loving parents and grandparents helping their children and grandchildren with their studies and struggles of being isolated to home. These are the shining lights piercing the darkness of pandemic and fear. These are the signs of the Resurrection blazing brightly in the face of death!

I would like to thank Fr. Steve for all his spiritual encouragement on our Facebook page throughout this time of quarantine. I would like to thank our parish administrator, Kevin Quinn, and parish staff, Mary Vey, Deacon Nick Danze, Donnamarie Black, Jon Delgado, Anna Landis Pat Monaghan and Jim DiFazio for all their continued work on all of our behalf from home, through Zoom meetings, phone outreach and internet. We continue to try to reach out through live-streaming with our daily Mass and prayers, holy hours, stations of the Cross and other spiritual outreaches that can be found on our parish Facebook page and website.

Many of you have reached out and inquired as to how they can continue to support the parish they love through their regular offerings. You can sign up for electronic giving on our parish website or mail or drop off your envelopes. This will help the parish to continue to serve you and your families. Over the past few weeks our collections have been off by over 50%, Your support is greatly needed and greatly appreciated.

May the joy and light of the Easter proclamation fill our hearts and our world with hope. Fear not the Risen Lord is with us! Blessed Easter!

Fr. Wallace

Stewardship

April 12, 2020

Steward's Mind Above

Easter Sunday

"Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth." COLOSSIANS 3:2

Do you put God first in all things? Possessions, money, power, ego can easily become gods to many of us. Do a quick Stewardship check of what is important to you. Is God at the very top of the list? If not, your priorities need to be re-adjusted. Don't let earthly things become a god before God. This is also the first commandment – I am the Lord your God, you shall not have any strange gods before me.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections

Easter Sunday

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Together as a family, make a large Easter banner. Invite family members to reflect on the following question: What does Jesus' Resurrection mean for you? After a few moments, have each family member write his or her own Easter message on the banner. Place the banner in a prominent place inside or outside your home.
- Jesus' Resurrection offers us new life and new hope. Create a work space in your home with markers, stickers and construction paper of bright colors. As a family, make Easter cards to take or send to people in nursing homes.
- Celebrate this day with the special activities that are traditional in your family. Help your children understand the meaning of these customs and how they help us to celebrate Jesus' Resurrection.
- Talk about how the Risen Christ lives in the hearts of his followers today. Discuss ways that your family can be signs of new hope and new life to each other and the community this week.

Prayer from USCCB(United States Conference of Catholic Bishops)

Covid—19: A Prayer of Solidarity

For all who have contracted coronavirus,

We pray for care and healing.

For those who are particularly vulnerable,

We pray for safety and protection.

For all who experience fear or anxiety,

We pray for peace of mind and spirit.

For affected families who are facing difficult decisions between food on the table or public safety,

We pray for policies that recognize their plight.

For those who do not have adequate health insurance,

We pray that no family will face financial burdens alone.

For those who are afraid to access care due to immigration status,

We pray for recognition of the God-given dignity of all.

For our brothers and sisters around the world,

We pray for shared solidarity.

For public officials and decisionmakers,

We pray for wisdom and guidance.

Father, during this time may your Church be a sign of hope, comfort and love to all.

Grant peace.

Grant comfort.

Grant healing.

Be with us, Lord.

Amen.
