Message from Rev, Leonard Peterson (Reflection)

Friends,

Most mornings find me driving a fairly busy route to the parish church where I assist with Masses in my working retirement. I get a form of the “morning rush hour” so loved by the TV traffic reporters. Be that as it may, I often wind up riding behind either a driver who favors 43 mph in the legal 50 mph, or in front of another with a keen desire to inhale my exhaust as he/she is doing 60 in the same zone. On one of those recent mornings traveling in South Jersey farmland brought me alongside a scene of grazing sheep “safely grazing” to quote the hymn. Munching contentedly their farm grown breakfast, they were sharp contrast to the human activity.

This “Good Shepherd Sunday” offers us an opportunity to consider that ancient occupation, mostly missing on modern job applications and what it might teach us. Shepherding in Jesus’ time had all the dimensions of a “24/7” task, as we might describe it. The person so designated had to literally live with his herd of dependents around the clock. He or she had to be an outdoor type, sometimes compelled to be the actual “gate” as they stretched out at night across the gap in the stone fence that acted as a pen for the herd. The pay was usually nothing to blow a ram’s horn about. Still it was good work, enough for a person to take care of him/herself and any dependents. And if the shepherd was truly good, there developed a healthy respect for their woolly charges. Such a person was the exact opposite of those wandering strangers seeking only a paycheck, with no interest whatever in the sheep.

Our Lord was in such good touch with the reality of His day that when He assumed the teacher’s role, He described Himself as the Good Shepherd with all that implied. Is it any wonder that St. Peter’s current successor, Pope Francis, has urged his bishops and priests to acquire “the smell of the sheep?” But that also means that the lay faithful of the Church, the sheep, be far more than “contented grazers” along the highway. Or just be Sunday “pew warmers” when the world is so cold towards Christ every day of the week.

Bud Wilkinson, a famous football coach, was once asked, “What contribution does professional sport make to the physical fitness of Americans?” To no one’s surprise, he answered, “Very little. A professional football game,” he said, “is a happening where fifty thousand spectators, desperately needing exercise, sit in the stands watching twenty-two men on the field, desperately needing rest.” Let that description never fit our Church dear friends. Especially in this unusual time, Our Good Shepherd deserves our best.

Stewardship

May 3, 2020
Stewards Repent
4th Sunday of Easter

“And Peter said to them, ‘Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ...’
ACTS 2:38 The word “repent” means to turn from sin, to change our actions. Change that is permanent comes from within. It requires prayer, discipline and perseverance. Change is also hard. We have to recognize that we are broken and need help. The good news - we are not alone in our journey. Stewards ask Jesus daily for guidance and patiently listen for his response.

Electronic Giving: PARISH GIVING is a safe, secure, and easy way to make on-line church related donations and payments. It is easy...and offers you a variety of ways to make consistent or special contributions. Please give it a try by visiting our parish website: www.notredamedelamer.org and click on the PARISH GIVING button.

Weekly Readings Reflections

4th Sunday of Easter

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Have family members reflect on the following question: How does your family take care of you and help you grow? On the same sheet of paper list all the things your family does for you. Talk about how the love of family reminds us of God's care and love for us.
- Choose a picture of Jesus to hang in your home. Have a special blessing when you hang the picture. Pray Psalm 23 together.
- As a family, identify some of the voices that try to drown out Jesus' voice in today's culture. Discuss how these voices can lead us astray.
- Who are the ones in need in your family, extended family, neighborhood, or community, for whom you can be a shepherd? In imitation of Jesus the Good Shepherd, help meet these needs in a caring way.
