Letter From AnnaMae Muryasz

Dear Parishioners,

As the year of Mercy approaches the end, I want to thank all of you for your kind and generous participation in all the “Mercy Projects”. Some of our homebound members were the recipients of tea and cups; diocesan migrant workers were the receivers of the water; and our brothers and sisters in Haiti especially the children were those who received the school supplies and the shoes. Mercy is an on-going act we as Catholics need to practice in our lives. I hope and I pray all the good works that have been evidenced during this year of Mercy will not stop. I pray that with the grace of God and the love for others we as Catholics will continue to reach out to those who are in need in our local surroundings and in countries far away. May God abundantly bless you for all that you have done!

Our gospel and readings today speak to us of wealth and the use of wealth yet in 2015 - 9.2 million people lived in extreme poverty. That number only includes those who lived on $1.90 or less a day. But we know in our country poor in dollars is a great deal higher than $1.90 and in a great many ways cannot always be measured by dollars and cents. As the readings come to an end clearly it is stated we cannot serve both God and man. What is this saying? Do we trust? Do we place our trust in God? Do we believe that God will only ask us to do what He knows we have the strength to handle? Do we realize we have a call to be present to others and to help others? Do we remember that God gave us our life and we are to live it for Him? Trusting? Trusting in God? So many times we see people who make preparations in their lives for the future or plans for five or ten years down the road only to never get that far in their life. An accident; an illness; something happens to cause an early end. Has their life been lived for God? Have they served Him to the best of their ability? Or was it I will get to that tomorrow? I will give to that cause tomorrow? I will start praying tomorrow? I will start going to church again next week? What is so important in our lives that we cannot place God first and still have enough time to accomplish everything else that is important? Do we give God that place of honor and priority in our lives believing that He will take care of everything else? Believe God can do all things and He works to good for all those that BELIEVE. BELIEVE and give God your ALL.

In Jesus,
AnnaMae Muryasz – Life Long Faith Formation Director

Stewardship

Stewards Serve God

"No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (wealth) Luke 16:13

Is money a "god" that you put before God? Giving money to support the Church and other charity develops Stewardship and is a pillar of our Faith, just like attending Mass every Sunday and participating in parish ministry. Giving money frees us from being a slave to money and increases our dependence on God and to trust that He will provide all that we need.

DID YOU KNOW - the House of Charity

is a donor choice for many employee giving campaigns? Many businesses will begin their Employee Giving Campaigns this month and continue to solicit donations through the fall months. Employee Giving/United Way campaigns give us an opportunity to direct our donations to the charities that best represent our beliefs, interests and social concerns. Ask your employer for a pledge card and be sure to: In the Donor Choice Section, designate the "HOUSE of Charity" Ask to be acknowledged! This ensures our parish will receive credit toward our House of Charity goal. If the agency requests a code for your donor choice...these codes may be found on the House of Charity website under "Employee Giving Campaign" and in the Catholic Star Herald. Your donation to our House of Charity helps to build, support and maintain many programs, ministries and services throughout our parishes and communities. These programs save lives and build futures. Thank you so much for your past, present and future support of our House of Charity fundraising campaign. If you have any questions, please contact: Sheila McGirl, House of Charity (856) 583-6128

Parish Information

Sacraments

Pre-Baptismal Classes: As the primary educators of their child, the parents/guardians and godparents have the most important influence on the faith development of children and parishes must provide catechesis for them before their child is baptized. Notre Dame de la Mer Parish offers six Baptism Preparation Classes throughout the year. It is important for the expectant parents/guardians to arrange to attend a session 5 months before the birth and Baptism of the child. Contact the parish offices for more information. The next class is scheduled for Saturday, November 6, 2016, from 9:30 to 11:00 AM.

Funerals: To be arranged with a priest and funeral director.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Marriage: Arrangements should be made one year in advance and prior to making reception plans.
