Stewardship

February 12, 2023 – True Stewards

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.” MATTHEW 5:20

The Pharisees lived according to the letter of the law and they used this to elevate themselves above the other people. Jesus is clear. It's the love that you have in your heart, for God and others, that will get you to heaven. Simply following church rules to the letter and not out of love, does not necessarily put you on the path to heaven. Attending Sunday Mass and then gossiping about a fellow parishioner on the parking lot is an example of being a modern-day Pharisee, not a true Steward.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

Dear Parishioners,

I pray that all of you are well in the Lord! One time, Saint John Paul II was asked what his favorite line in Sacred Scripture is. Without any hesitation he said, “The truth will set you free.” (John 8:32). The pope saint not only preached the truth and taught the truth, but he lived in the truth. It has been said that on average, people lie at least twice a day. Some falsehoods can be what I have heard called “white lies.” I suppose they are what seems to be harmless false information, but no matter any lie does not reflect He Who is “the way, the truth and the life.” A person may be tempted to lie to get out of trouble, to exaggerate, to gossip or worse, to hurt someone. A lie is always a sin and I am always praying to live in the truth and to proclaim the truth. Our Merciful God gives us the grace to live in the truth and to come out of the shadows of untruth. A wise priest once said to me, “If you cannot say something to a person, you should think about not saying it at all.” This helps us to be pure in our intention. God help us all from ever hurting someone by spreading lies and gossip behind each other’s back. I come from a family who are very honest with each other, and I am grateful for this gift, but any time I fail, I ask your pardon. I always desire as one of your priests to be direct with those to whom I am speaking so that our conversations will be in the Light. Finally, let us all strive to be honest with ourselves. I was looking for a good quote and found this quote from the book The Brothers Karamazov by Fyodor Dostoevsky, “Above all, don't lie to yourself. The man who lies to himself and listens to his own lie comes to a point that he cannot distinguish the truth within him, or around him, and so loses all respect for himself and for others. And having no respect he ceases to love.”

God bless you,

Father Cesar

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Sirach 15:15-20

Human beings have free will. The Law is a gift from God.

- Sirach was written very late in Old Testament times.
- The author of Sirach lived in a cosmopolitan, pagan community that did not support his religious values.
- He asserts that we are responsible for keeping God's law regardless of the prevailing culture.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 2:6-10

Happy are they that follow the Law of the Lord.

- God's law is contrasted to prevailing culture.
- Following Christ in radical obedience was the true wisdom of the Christian.
- The reward of radical obedience was beyond all human imagination.

Gospel: Matthew 5:17-37

The Law is God's gift of life. The holiness of Jesus' followers is a choice of life.

- Jesus gave six examples of how to follow the Law. Four of them are read in this Sunday's Gospel.
- He declared that the sin really begins with the decision, before the action is taken.
- The Law is God's gift of life. The wholeness of Jesus' followers is a choice of life.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Discuss what radical obedience might mean. What does obedience require? How can one be radical in practicing obedience? Then have each person relate how he/she might specifically practice obedience in a radical manner.
- Sirach lived in a culture that did not support his religious values. Do your family members feel supported in religious values by today's culture? How or how not? What is the solution? How can values be upheld when the culture opposes them? How does the domestic Church, or family, support its members? Make a plan for supporting each other in times of opposition to the culture.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.
