Stewardship

January 5, 2025 The Epiphany of the Lord Stewards Give

“...They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.” - MATTHEW 2:11

What gifts do Christian Stewards give to the Lord? Pope St. Gregory said that these three gifts represent what we should give God every day. Gold – we should reflect Christ’s wisdom in all our relationships. Frankincense – represents our daily prayer and adoration to God. Myrrh – is a symbol of our daily sacrifices that we unite with Jesus for the sake of others.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Dear Parishioners,

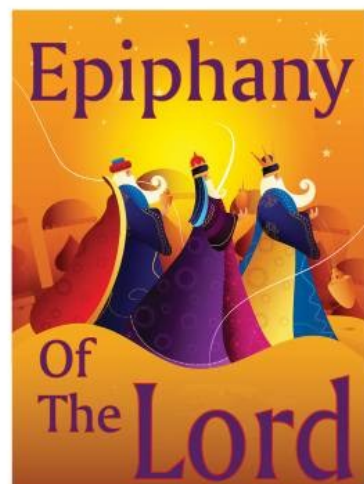

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! Today, the Church celebrates the great feast of Epiphany, the day when the Magi came to pay homage to the Baby Jesus. On this day, we celebrate the manifestation of Jesus Christ to all the nations symbolized by the Magi. The Magi after all were not Jewish but pagan. This event presents Jesus not coming for the Jewish people alone but for the whole world! As the responsorial psalm says, “Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.”

The Incarnation, the Son taking on human flesh, is a sign to the world that God is not a distant deity but a loving Lord, who desires all men to adore him so they may have life. If we look around, however, it seems the Lord is ignored and not adored as we prayed during the responsorial psalm. This lack of adoration does not change the fact that the Lord is King, who desires all to come to him.

Today in Camden, Bishop Sullivan celebrated the opening of the Jubilee Year, 2025. A Jubilee year is celebrated every 25 years and is a time for us to renew our faith, reconcile with the Lord and each other, and make pilgrimages to holy sites. The Holy Father, Pope Francis, themed this Jubilee Year, “Pilgrims of Hope.” In his papal bull announcing the Jubilee Year, Pope Francis provided insight into the meaning of this year’s theme when he wrote, “May the light of Christian hope illumine every man and woman, as a message of God’s love addressed to all! And may the Church bear faithful witness to this message in every part of the world!”

In a post-pandemic world filled with anxiety, fear, and war, this time of year is an invitation to renew not just our faith, but our hope, our hope in Jesus Christ. The Incarnate Lord, who manifested God’s love for all the world to the Magi, is our comfort and remedy. He is our rock and our refuge. What good is it if we keep this gift of hope to ourselves? As believers of Christ, we are to be like the star that attracted the Magi to come to the Lord. During this Jubilee Year, may the Lord strengthen our hope and use us to bring his light to all the nations.

God bless,
Deacon Thomas Piro

Reading I : Isaiah 60:1-6

Your light has come!

- The showing forth of God's glory is apparent in today's passage from Isaiah.
- All nations will walk by Jerusalem's light, the glory of God within it.
- The prophet announces to the people that even in the midst of darkness, they will forever be enlightened by the presence of God.

Reading II : Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

We all share the same promise!

- The earliest Christians, mostly Jews, struggled with the realization that even Gentiles are included in God's plan of salvation.
- Today's letter points out that people in former ages did not understand that God's mercy extended to all people.
- Gentiles and Jews are one body in Christ.

Gospel : Matthew 2:1-12

They opened their coffers and presented him with gifts.

- Matthew's Gospel clearly demonstrates that all the prophecies of old have come to fulfillment in Christ.
- As promised, Gentile wise men recognize Jesus as Messiah even when the Jerusalem sages do not.
- The official priests and scribes quote the messianic prophecies that identify Bethlehem, the city of David's birth, as the birthplace of the Messiah. However, they do not follow their own wisdom.

This fascinating tour of the Mass will renew your faith and deepen your love for and devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

Saint of the Week:

John Neumann, Bishop - 1811-1860

Patron saint of sick children and of immigrants
Canonized by Pope Saint Paul VI on June 19, 1977
Liturgical Color: White

After attending a diocesan seminary, John Neumann came to the United States from the Czech Republic. Soon after his arrival he was ordained a priest and served European immigrants on the frontier. He joined the Redemptorist Order and established many schools. Later, John was named bishop of Philadelphia. He encouraged religious orders to settle in the area. He also built a number of new parishes and began building a cathedral.

His feast day is January 5.

Prayer: Saint John Neumann, you loved God from the depths of your soul and desired to serve Him and His people through tireless charity, preaching, leadership, and compassion. You brought the Gospel on foot to people far and wide, had a deep love for the poor and troubled, and worked as an effective administrator, building up the life of the Church. Please pray for me, that I may be inspired by your zeal and commit myself to the fulfillment of God's will for my life. Saint John Neumann, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.
