Our Mission Statement

The love of Jesus Christ gathers us together to welcome and embrace all God's Children.
El amor de Jesus Cristo nos unifica para acoger a todos como hijos de Dios

Dear Friends,

There is a touching scene in the film “Becket” where an obstreperous young religious brother that the Archbishop (played by Richard Burton) has brought on as an aide accidentally overhears his master praying. The great man’s words bespeak of humility and courage, enough to change the brother’s attitude to one of reverence rather than rebellion. It is a blessing of our Church that we get to “overhear” the authentic prayers of many of our great saints, with no script writer intervening. Giants of the past like Augustine and Teresa of Avila mingle with people like favorites of mine Thomas More and John Henry Newman. This not to exclude John Paul II and Mother Teresa, all of whom lead up to Our Lady herself. Her few recorded words in Scripture are unmatched.

But what if we could “overhear” Jesus Himself? What a gift! Of course, we are blest to have many of His prayers in the New Testament. But in today’s gospel, we listen as He just pours out His heart on the eve of His Passion. His disciples must have stopped their eating and turned with rapt attention, even if they had no idea of what was about to happen to their Master. St. John’s gospel lets us listen in.

Note the intense love of the Son for His Father. We will later on learn from St. John that “God is love.” But here Jesus shows it. He begins by acknowledging that His “hour” has come. The awful “hour” that will forever mark our Fridays. Then He asks for “glory.” Not for Himself to hoard, but so that He may glorify the Father. He has accomplished His given task, which we know was all about redeeming us.

In this time of quarantine and close family living, there are probably a lot of stories that emerge from children now gathered daily at mealtime. The following is a very realistic and amusing one that also involves overhearing. A little boy and his brother went to visit their grandmother. As the little boy said his prayers, he was shouting at the top of his voice, “Please God, send me a bicycle, send me a cell phone,” and all that. His brother said, “Not so loud. For crying out loud, God isn’t deaf.” The little boy replied, “Yes I know, but grandma is.”

Stewardship Prayer

7th Sunday of Easter (The Ascension of the Lord)

"I am praying for them..." JOHN 17: 9

Prayer is the foundation of our Faith and the foundation of Stewardship. Pray in good times and in bad. Prayer is always the first and best option in any situation, not just the last resort. Pray for friends and family and for those that don't treat you very well. Pray to give praise, to thank and to ask God for help. Pray to see what God wants you to do with the gifts He has given you.

Electronic Giving: PARISH GIVING is a safe, secure, and easy way to make on-line church related donations and payments. It is easy...and offers you a variety of ways to make consistent or special contributions. Please give it a try by visiting our parish website: www.notredamedelamer.org and click on the PARISH GIVING button.

Parish Information

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be determined at a later date
(the third Monday of the month),
at 9:00 AM at Kelly Hall

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Please consider signing up to spend thirty minutes or more before the Blessed Sacrament in Kelly Hall at Assumption Church on Thursdays from 9:00 a.m. to noon. Sign up books for are at the back of each church and in Msgr. Kelly Hall. If you cannot commit to a specific time for a month or two, please consider signing up to be a sub. AND please remember to sign in when you get to adoration. Thank you so much. God will truly bless you in a special way.

Coronavirus Prayer

Lord Jesus, you heal the sick.
We pray that the coronavirus that has affected so many in our world can be contained, controlled, and cured.

We lift up to your mercy all those affected, all those working hard to study and cure this illness, and all health care professionals and emergency management teams that are working day and night to keep us safe.

Help us, Lord, to trust in your merciful care.

Lord Jesus, hear our prayer.
Amen.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections

7th Sunday of Easter

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Have a family discussion about prayer. Invite everyone to put their names in a basket and to pull a prayer partner for this week. Throughout the week, pray for your prayer partner. Do not reveal prayer partners. At the end of the week, go out as a family for an ice cream treat or share a special family meal and reveal whose name each member had for the week.
- We pray when we ask God for something or thank God for the many gifts we have been given. Create a family prayer box with your family. Use a shoe box and cut a small opening on top. Give each family member a small piece of note paper. Invite family members to write down what they would like to ask of God. Place the prayers in the prayer box. Thank God for hearing your prayers.

Prayer from USCCB(United States Conference of Catholic Bishops)

Covid—19: A Prayer of Solidarity

For all who have contracted coronavirus,

We pray for care and healing.

For those who are particularly vulnerable,

We pray for safety and protection.

For all who experience fear or anxiety,

We pray for peace of mind and spirit.

For affected families who are facing difficult decisions between food on the table or public safety,

We pray for policies that recognize their plight.

For those who do not have adequate health insurance,

We pray that no family will face financial burdens alone.

For those who are afraid to access care due to immigration status,

We pray for recognition of the God-given dignity of all.

For our brothers and sisters around the world,

We pray for shared solidarity.

For public officials and decisionmakers,

We pray for wisdom and guidance.

Father, during this time may your Church be a sign of hope, comfort and love to all.

Grant peace.

Grant comfort.

Grant healing.

Be with us, Lord.

Amen.
