For Generations to Come

Refurbishment & Revitalize Campaign

Thank you for being a part of Notre Dame de la Mer Catholic Community and for supporting the work of the Church with your time, talent, and treasure. Your presence and your contributions are a true blessing.

We are all blessed to have such beautiful churches and after many wonderful years of worship, prayer, and the sacraments, are now asking for help to address three immediate concerns (identified below). The years have taken a toll on many parts of both our churches, and this campaign is asking for assistance with the most urgent needs to enable Notre Dame de la Mer to continue to provide a comfortable and beautiful environment.

No vision this big comes without a price, but we believe that by praying and working together, we can build something great, not for our glory, but for God's. If we are to build what is needed to support our growing faith family and do the work of our Church for years to come, we will need everyone in our community to make an additional, significant, financial sacrifice, just as those who have gone before us.

Consider the story of the widow's mite from Luke 21:1-4. In this parable, Jesus speaks of rich people contributing their gifts to the offertory, followed by a poor widow who gave two small coins. Jesus viewed her contribution as a sacrificial gift because she truly felt the impact in her daily life.

Thank you for your support, your prayers, and for being part of this project and community. It is a blessing to walk beside you.

In the Peace of Christ,
Fr. Cadmus Mazzarella, Pastor

From the Pastor ~ Introducing New Youth Minister

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I am happy to announce that we have hired a new Youth Minister, Kari Janisse, for both our Parish and Parish School, Wildwood Catholic Academy. She will be working with our Parish staff and WCA staff to provide enriching programs for junior high students, high school students, and young adults (ages 18-28).

Kari was a college student from my time at Rowan University and an active member of our Newman Club there. Upon graduation, Kari worked with me as the parish youth minister for two parishes for over 13 years. She has recently just completed four years as Catholic Campus Minister at Rowan University. Also, for the last four years, Kari has led our WCA high school class retreats and has become very well-known by WCA students and faculty.

I know Kari will do a fantastic job teaching, leading and serving our young people. Her ministry with us will begin August 2.

In Christ,
Fr. Mazz

Welcome Kari!

Saint of the Week

Christopher, Martyr, Third Century

Christopher is one of the most popular saints in both the East and in the West. Many stories surround him, some contradictory and confusing.

One of the most popular traditions holds that Christopher was a strong giant who made his living by carrying people across a raging stream. For years, he searched in vain to find someone more powerful than himself. He finally concluded that this could only be Christ, since the devil feared Christ.

One of his passengers was a small child who grew so heavy as they crossed the stream that Christopher thought they would both drown. The child then identified himself as Christ and the heaviness was caused by the weight of the world on his shoulders.

Saint Christopher was martyred during the reign of Decius in about 251. His name means Christ-bearer and as a result of this legend, he is the patron of travelers especially, in modern times, of motorists.

Christopher's message today: We are much luckier than Christopher. While we can all carry Jesus within us, he does not burden us with the weight of the world. Rather, he lifts our burdens from us and helps us to carry them if we follow him.

•When your burdens seem too heavy for you to carry, do you turn to Jesus for help? Perhaps Saint Christopher will intercede on your behalf if you say a prayer to him.

Reflections on the Readings

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I : 1 Kings 3:5, 7-12 - Give your servant an understanding heart.

The reading from 1 Kings presents Solomon at the beginning of his reign.

When God promises to give Solomon whatever he desires in a dream, Solomon makes a single request; a listening heart.

Today's passage is the foundation for the tradition that Solomon was the wisest and richest person who ever lived.

Reading II : Romans 8:28-30 - God makes all things work together for good.

The second reading continues Chapter 8 of Paul's Letter to the Romans.

Paul describes the fruit of wisdom, as the single-hearted commitment to God.

Those who abandon everything for the treasure of loving God are truly wise.

Gospel : Matthew 13:44-52 - The reign of God is a treasure.

The first two parables in the Gospel reading make a point similar to that of the first reading; everything can be given up joyfully for the sake of the Kingdom.

Similar to the parable of the weeds in the wheat, the third parable teaches that there is an appropriate time for sorting out good and bad. Jesus ends his discourse with a question to the disciples: "Have you understood all this?" They answer, "Yes". But we know they may not have understood as fully as they claimed to.

In the Gospels we read time and time again about Jesus leaving his disciples and the crowds and going to a place set apart... "and there he prayed" (Mark 1:35). If Jesus needed this time in silence and solitude, how much more do you think we need it? The world is a busy and noisy place, and all of that tends to distract us from what matters most. It is getting harder and harder to find a quiet place in this world, but one of the greatest gifts the Catholic Church gives to us all is places that are set apart for quiet reflection. Churches and chapels, retreat centers and monasteries – over the centuries, the Church has established places in almost every community on earth for us to be still and quiet and reflect on what is happening within us and around us.
