For Generations to Come

Refurbishment & Revitalize Campaign

Thank you for being a part of Notre Dame de la Mer Catholic Community and for supporting the work of the Church with your time, talent, and treasure. Your presence and your contributions are a true blessing.

We are all blessed to have such beautiful churches and after many wonderful years of worship, prayer, and the sacraments, are now asking for help to address three immediate concerns (identified below). The years have taken a toll on many parts of both our churches, and this campaign is asking for assistance with the most urgent needs to enable Notre Dame de la Mer to continue to provide a comfortable and beautiful environment.

No vision this big comes without a price, but we believe that by praying and working together, we can build something great, not for our glory, but for God's. If we are to build what is needed to support our growing faith family and do the work of our Church for years to come, we will need everyone in our community to make an additional, significant, financial sacrifice, just as those who have gone before us.

Consider the story of the widow's mite from Luke 21:1-4. In this parable, Jesus speaks of rich people contributing their gifts to the offertory, followed by a poor widow who gave two small coins. Jesus viewed her contribution as a sacrificial gift because she truly felt the impact in her daily life.

Thank you for your support, your prayers, and for being part of this project and community. It is a blessing to walk beside you.

In the Peace of Christ,
Fr. Cadmus Mazzarella, Pastor

Campaign Objectives

This $750,000 campaign will build upon the strong legacy of the Notre Dame de la Mer community, so it can continue meeting the needs of parishioners and students for many generations to come.

The campaign objectives will elevate our facilities to better align with the dignity and excellence of the spiritual care and formation we provide. Objectives with estimated individual cost include:

St. Ann

- Roof Replacement (project currently underway)
 - ❖ Phase I: Exterior Roof Replacement – $190,000
 - ❖ Phase II: Interior Ceiling & Wall Repair – $70,000
- Total St. Ann Estimate: $260,000

Assumption

- Replace HVAC System
 - ❖ Phase I: Boiler Replacement – $95,000
 - ❖ Phase II: 20 Ton Split System (Flanking Altar) – $184,400
 - ❖ Phase III: 15 Ton Split System (Choir Loft) – $170,600
 - ❖ Retrofit Pendant Lights
 - ❖ Phase I: Completed – Retrofitted Four Lights
 - ❖ Phase II: Retrofit Remaining 20 lights – $36,000
 - ❖ Phase III: Repair of Choir loft Electric – $4,000

Total Assumption Estimate: $490,000

Please contact David DeStefano with any questions or to donate.

From the Pastor ~ Introducing New Youth Minister

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I am happy to announce that we have hired a new Youth Minister, Kari Janisse, for both our Parish and Parish School, Wildwood Catholic Academy. She will be working with our Parish staff and WCA staff to provide enriching programs for junior high students, high school students, and young adults (ages 18-28).

Kari was a college student from my time at Rowan University and an active member of our Newman Club there. Upon graduation, Kari worked with me as the parish youth minister for two parishes for over 13 years. She has recently just completed four years as Catholic Campus Minister at Rowan University. Also, for the last four years, Kari has led our WCA high school class retreats and has become very well-known by WCA students and faculty.

I know Kari will do a fantastic job teaching, leading and serving our young people. Her ministry with us will begin August 2.

In Christ,
Fr. Mazz

Welcome Kari!

Saint of the Week

Dominic Priest, 1170-1221

The Son of the warden of a small town in Spain and Blessed Joan of Aza, Dominic The son of the warden of a small town in Spain and Blessed Joan of Aza, Dominic was educated by his mother until about his fourteenth birthday. At that time, Dominic entered the school of Palencia, and studied to become a priest. Upon ordination, he stayed with the community of priests from the school, living under the Rule of Saint Augustine. Dominic had been appointed a canon of the cathedral at Osma while still a student and continued in these duties after ordination. When Diego d'Azevedo, the prior of the monastery, was named bishop of Osma, Dominic was chosen as his successor at the age of thirty-one.

In 1204, Bishop Diego was sent to Denmark by the King of Castile and he asked Dominic to accompany him. En route, they passed through a town in France which was beset by the Albigensian heresy (this heresy held that the body and all material things were evil, therefore they denied the Incarnation of Jesus). Dominic, feeling kindness toward their host who professed this heresy, spent the whole night in discussion with him. As a result, the man rejected the heresy. It is commonly thought that this was when Dominic recognized what God's work for him was to be.

Upon return from their mission, Diego and Dominic went to Rome seeking the pope's permission to preach the Gospel in Russia. Instead the pope asked them to return to Spain and oppose the heresy there. During this time, Dominic took the first steps toward establishing a preaching order to become known as the Dominicans (officially, the Order of Preachers).

Dominic himself was a very persuasive preacher and ultimately can be credited with stemming the tide of the Albigensian heresy. He later sent his preachers out to other lands, and once more requested permission to preach in Russia. But the pope asked Dominic, now greatly respected throughout the Church, to effect reforms among several orders living in Rome at that time.

One story told about Dominic occurred during this latter stay in Rome. The nephew of a cardinal, a boy named Napoleon, was thrown from his horse and killed. The saint ordered the body to be brought into the house where he offered Mass. Following this, he arranged the bruised limbs of the body, then knelt down to pray. When he arose, he made the Sign of the Cross over the body and called out, "Napoleon, I say to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, arise." In that instant, in the sight of all, the young man arose with no signs of any injuries.

Dominic was known not only as a great preacher, but also as a gentle, charitable, and humble person. In 1220, he visited Bologna and halted construction of a priory for his friars when he judged it to be too stately and not consistent with his idea of poverty. Indeed, when he died on August 6, 1221, he died in a brother priest's bed because he had none of his own.

When Gregory IX canonized Dominic in 1234, he said that he no more doubted the sanctity of Dominic than he did that of Saints Peter and Paul. We honor this saint by a memorial celebrated on August 8. Saint Dominic is the patron of astronomers.

Dominic's message today: Dominic had great faith in God. With this gift, he was able to turn back a heresy and perform miracles. God has given the same gift to each of us and if we strengthen that faith, anything is possible to us. As Jesus told us, "if your faith is the size of a mustard seed...nothing will be impossible for you." (Mt 17:20)

Reflections on the Readings

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I : Isaiah 55:1-3 Come to the water!

In Isaiah 55, God, through the prophet, invites everyone to a feast free-of charge.

Isaiah offers encouragement to the people with the news that their exile will end.

A banquet is the image for this renewal. Just as the Sinai covenant was sealed with a meal, so this new covenant will be sealed with the finest food and drink.

Reading II : Romans 8:35, 37-39 - What can separate you from the love of Christ?

Chapter 8 of Paul's Letter to the Romans comes to a conclusion with a poetic declaration of God's great love.

Paul stresses that there is nothing in or out of the world that can separate us from the love of Christ.

The power of God's love is greater than anything else that exists.

Gospel : Matthew 14:13-21- You give them something to eat!

In today's Gospel, the miracle of the loaves and fishes is a sign that in Jesus, the messianic age has arrived.

Jesus' disciples are called to participate in "feeding the world" by their ministry.

The vocabulary in today's Gospel is linked to the early Christian Eucharist. Jesus "took" the food, "blessed and broke it," and "gave it" to the disciples.

In the Gospels we read time and time again about Jesus leaving his disciples and the crowds and going to a place set apart... "and there he prayed" (Mark 1:35). If Jesus needed this time in silence and solitude, how much more do you think we need it? The world is a busy and noisy place, and all of that tends to distract us from what matters most. It is getting harder and harder to find a quiet place in this world, but one of the greatest gifts the Catholic Church gives to us all is places that are set apart for quiet reflection. Churches and chapels, retreat centers and monasteries – over the centuries, the Church has established places in almost every community on earth for us to be still and quiet and reflect on what is happening within us and around us.
