For Generations to Come

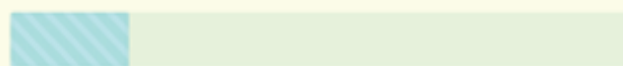

Refurbishment & Revitalization Campaign

WE ARE ON OUR WAY

$146,615

19%

Thank you to everyone who has donated or pledged to our campaign. Your continued generosity brings us closer to reaching our financial goal.

Thank you for being a part of Notre Dame de la Mer Catholic Community and for supporting the work of the Church with your time, talent, and treasure. Your presence and your contributions are a true blessing.

We are all blessed to have such beautiful churches and after many wonderful years of worship, prayer, and the sacraments, are now asking for help to address three immediate concerns (identified below). The years have taken a toll on many parts of both our churches, and this campaign is asking for assistance with the most urgent needs to enable Notre Dame de la Mer to continue to provide a comfortable and beautiful environment.

No vision this big comes without a price, but we believe that by praying and working together, we can build something great, not for our glory, but for God's. If we are to build what is needed to support our growing faith family and do the work of our Church for years to come, we will need everyone in our community to make an additional, significant, financial sacrifice, just as those who have gone before us.

Consider the story of the widow's mite from Luke 21:1-4. In this parable, Jesus speaks of rich people contributing their gifts to the offertory, followed by a poor widow who gave two small coins. Jesus viewed her contribution as a sacrificial gift because she truly felt the impact in her daily life.

Thank you for your support, your prayers, and for being part of this project and community. It is a blessing to walk beside you.

In the Peace of Christ,
Fr. Cadmus Mazzarella, Pastor

Saint of the Week

Stephen of Hungary, King, 975-1038

Stephen, called Vaik at birth, was the son of Geza, the leader of the Magyars, a fierce tribe which had settled into the land that is now Hungary. Geza deemed it politically expedient to become Christian, therefore, he, his family, and his nobles were baptized in 985. Vaik, a boy of ten who had not yet learned pagan ways, took the name Stephen. While Geza and the nobles were Christian largely in name only, Stephen became a practicing Christian.

In 997, Stephen succeeded his father as leader of the Magyars. One of his first undertakings was to put down rebellions among rival tribal leaders so that he could assume the leadership of all Hungary. Having overcome the warring tribes of the region, Stephen then sent Saint Astrik, whom he had designated Hungary's first archbishop, to Rome to request an ecclesiastic organization for Hungary. Stephen also asked the pope to give him the title of king to solidify his position among the tribes of Hungary. The pope granted both requests and sent back a crown which Stephen officially received on Christmas day, 1001. Over the next several years, Stephen established episcopal sees throughout his country and was a strong force in establishing the Church in Hungary. He abolished pagan practices and ordered that every person, except priests and religious, should marry. Stephen built a church in his capitol in which all later kings were to be crowned and buried. He further ordered that every tenth town would build a church and that all people tithe to support the Church and the poor. Stephen himself was strong in his support of the poor. While he made himself accessible to all his people, he was especially attentive to the needs of the poor. Stephen instituted a just code of laws, based on Christian principles, to govern his people. Although meant to improve living conditions for all people, it made enemies for Stephen among those who were less fervent Christians. Nevertheless, Stephen was successful in bringing the Magyars together as one people and establishing the independent kingdom of Hungary.

Stephen's only son, Blessed Emeric, was to have succeeded his father as king, but was killed in a hunting accident in 1031. A series of intrigues and squabbles around the succession to the throne followed.

Stephen's nephews attempted to kill him, and his sister, Gisela, seeking the throne for her son, plotted to that end. Stephen himself was plagued by illness during the last years of his life.

Stephen died on the feast of the Assumption in 1038 and he was canonized by Pope Gregory VII in 1083. Saint Stephen is the patron saint of Hungary, kings, the death of children, masons, stone cutters, and brick layers. His optional memorial is celebrated on August 16.

Stephen's message today: Stephen, a ruler with all the power and wealth in his kingdom at his disposal, recognized that he had obligations reaching far beyond governing his people and used Christian principles to create an environment of change. We too can use our Christianity to better the lives of those around us.

- What opportunities do you see for Christian service in your neighborhood? Parish? Community?

Reflections on the Readings

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I: Isaiah 56:1, 6-7 - Observe what is right and do what is just.

- ❖ The final chapters from the Book of Isaiah proclaim a hopeful message.
- ❖ In today's reading, the prophet declares that God's covenant will be extended to all nations.
- ❖ Everyone who does what is right and just, will be answered by God's righteousness.

Reading II: Romans 11:13-15, 29-32 - God's gifts can never be taken back.

- ❖ In the Letter to the Romans, Paul addresses the Gentile Christians and declares that they should not consider themselves better than the Jews.
- ❖ Paul points out that the Gentiles should be grateful to the Jews, whose rejection of Jesus was the catalyst that sent the Good News of the Gospel to the Gentiles so quickly.
- ❖ God, who has been so merciful to the Gentiles, will also be merciful to the children of Abraham, the people of the covenant.

Gospel: Matthew 15:21-28 - She insisted that Jesus help her, and he did.

- ❖ The Gospel today presents a story of exclusion that ends with inclusion.
- ❖ In Matthew's Gospel the disciples were frequently referred to as "those of little faith." The only person praised for having "great faith" in today's Gospel is the Canaanite woman.

The woman was not a Jew, but because of her great faith in God's mercy, mercy was granted to her.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Monday-Thursday 9AM-1PM

Friday 9AM-3PM

DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET CLOSING at 3PM

ST. JOSEPH'S ROOM ASSUMPTION CHURCH

In the Gospels we read time and time again about Jesus leaving his disciples and the crowds and going to a place set apart... "and there he prayed" (Mark 1:35). If Jesus needed this time in silence and solitude, how much more do you think we need it? The world is a busy and noisy place, and all of that tends to distract us from what matters most. It is getting harder and harder to find a quiet place in this world, but one of the greatest gifts the Catholic Church gives to us all is places that are set apart for quiet reflection. Churches and chapels, retreat centers and monasteries – over the centuries, the Church has established places in almost every community on earth for us to be still and quiet and reflect on what is happening within us and around us.

Matthew Kelly, Beautiful Eucharist (Dynamic Catholic.com)

A few more adorers are needed to reach the goal of three per hour. Please consider signing up for an hour.
