For Generations to Come

Refurbishment & Revitalization Campaign

WE ARE ON OUR WAY

$187,130

Thank you to everyone who donated or pledged to our campaign. Your continued generosity brings us closer to reaching our financial goal.

25% of our $750,000 goal reached!

Thank you for being a part of Notre Dame de la Mer Catholic Community and for supporting the work of the Church with your time, talent, and treasure. Your presence and your contributions are a true blessing.

We are all blessed to have such beautiful churches and after many wonderful years of worship, prayer, and the sacraments, are now asking for help to address three immediate concerns (identified below). The years have taken a toll on many parts of both our churches, and this campaign is asking for assistance with the most urgent needs to enable Notre Dame de la Mer to continue to provide a comfortable and beautiful environment.

No vision this big comes without a price, but we believe that by praying and working together, we can build something great, not for our glory, but for God's. If we are to build what is needed to support our growing faith family and do the work of our Church for years to come, we will need everyone in our community to make an additional, significant, financial sacrifice, just as those who have gone before us.

Thank you for your support, your prayers, and for being part of this project and community. It is a blessing to walk beside you.

In the Peace of Christ,
Fr. Cadmus Mazzarella, Pastor

DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET CLOSING at 3PM

ST. JOSEPH'S ROOM
ASSUMPTION CHURCH

In the Gospels we read time and time again about Jesus leaving his disciples and the crowds and going to a place set apart... "and there he prayed" (Mark 1:35). If Jesus needed this time in silence and solitude, how much more do you think we need it? The world is a busy and noisy place, and all of that tends to distract us from what matters most. It is getting harder and harder to find a quiet place in this world, but one of the greatest gifts the Catholic Church gives to us all is places that are set apart for quiet reflection. Churches and chapels, retreat centers and monasteries – over the centuries, the Church has established places in almost every community on earth for us to be still and quiet and reflect on what is happening within us and around us.

REPORT SEXUAL ABUSE

An independent, toll-free number has been established by the Diocese of Camden to help callers report cases of sexual abuse by priests, deacons, religious, employees and/or volunteers. Calls are handled by a licensed clinical social worker. In accord with state law, cases of child sexual abuse are reported to the N.J. Division of Child Protection and Permanency and law enforcement.

HOLY HOUR OF INTERCESSION

PRAYING FOR OUR YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULTS

Join us for the next Holy Hour on September 15

The Diocese of Camden Youth and Young Adults Office has requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayer for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives.

MEN'S PRAYER GROUP

MEN OF THE CATHOLIC FAITH~

Our Parish has an active and vibrant men's group exploring issues we as Catholic men are confronted with. Our mission is to defend the Catholic faith. We pray the Rosary. We are Men of the Messiah. We explore the secrets of the Bible; where sacraments are written and commanded us by Jesus; we learn how to fully understand the Eucharist; the Blessed Virgin Mary; the papacy; the confession of sins; who are the Apostles and who are the Saints. We support the Parish in minor manual tasks.

Saint of the Week

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time Vibiana, Virgin and Martyr, c. Third Century

In 1851, Pope Pius IX bought a vineyard located just outside of Rome. When ancient catacombs were discovered underneath the land, the pope directed the Pontifical Commission for Sacred Archeology to explore the vast underground network.

About two years later, an intact tomb was uncovered which was sealed by a marble tablet. When the tomb was opened, the skeleton of a young woman was discovered. She had apparently died a violent death. The inscription on the tablet, while not revealing the exact year of her death, bore markings which indicated that the victim had been martyred. The wording, "To the soul of the innocent and pure Vibiana" also suggested that the young woman had died a virgin.

The pope ordered an investigation to authenticate the designation "virgin and martyr" for Vibiana. The favorable decision, just a few weeks later, led the pope to declare an "equivalent canonization" for this third century servant of God. With canonization, a devotion soon developed in Rome to honor this saint. Pius IX himself was a leader in this veneration and took an active hand in spreading her devotion to the universal Church.

When Thaddeus Amat, the newly consecrated bishop of Monterey in California, was received by the pope on March 18, 1854, Pius presented the relics of Saint Vibiana to him with instructions to build a cathedral in her honor. The bishop arrived in his diocese and carried the relics to Santa Barbara, where they were placed in a reliquary in Our Lady of Sorrows church. In 1856, Pius IX named Saint Vibiana as the principal patroness of the diocese of Monterey and designated a special feast day in her honor.

In August, 1863, a fire completely destroyed Our Lady of Sorrows church. The relics of Saint Vibiana, encased in a wax figure covered with silk, escaped unharmed. This apparently miraculous occurrence caused the devotion to this saint to spread even further. Since no provisions were made in the new church for the relics, they were brought to Los Angeles where they were eventually installed in the new cathedral dedicated, in 1876, in Saint Vibiana's honor.

As the Catholic population of southern and central California grew, Los Angeles was established as a separate diocese (and later, as an archdiocese) with Saint Vibiana as its patron. The original cathedral named in her honor was closed in 1995 due to earthquake damage.

An interesting story is told of this saint's intercession in recent years. A homeless man had found shelter in the cathedral for some time. Praying to the saint, he asked her intervention with God to improve his state. After a while, it is said, the homeless man won the lottery, moved to the mid-west and turned his life around. Each year, on the saint's feast day, September 1, he returns to thank Saint Vibiana for her help and donates a substantial sum of money to the church to care for other homeless people.

Vibiana's message today: This saint is remarkable in that we know so little about her life and death. But what is striking is that, through her intercession with God, she has interceded on behalf of many people in our times, and helped those who need her assistance.

Perhaps Vibiana can inspire you to help someone who has a need of your service. Ask her to seek direction for you.
