FOR GENERATIONS TO COME
REFURBISHMENT & REVITALIZE CAMPAIGN
WE ARE ON OUR WAY $244,765

Thank you to everyone who donated or pledged to our campaign. Your continued generosity brings us closer to reaching our financial goal.

32.64% of our $750,000 goal reached!

Thank you for being a part of Notre Dame de la Mer Catholic Community and for supporting the work of the Church with your time, talent, and treasure. Your presence and your contributions are a true blessing.

We are all blessed to have such beautiful churches and after many wonderful years of worship, prayer, and the sacraments, we are now asking for help to address immediate concerns. The years have taken a toll on many parts of both our churches, and this refurbishment and revitalization campaign is asking for assistance with the most urgent needs to enable Notre Dame de la Mer Parish to continue to provide a comfortable and beautiful environment.

No vision this big comes without a price, but we believe that by praying and working together, we can build something great, not for our glory, but for God's. If we are to build what is needed to support our growing faith family and do the work of our Church for years to come, we will need everyone in our community to make an additional, significant, financial sacrifice, just as those who have gone before us.

Consider the story of the widow's mite from Luke 21:1-4. In this parable, Jesus speaks of rich people contributing their gifts to the offertory, followed by a poor widow who gave two small coins. Jesus viewed her contribution as a sacrificial gift because she truly felt the impact in her daily life.

Thank you for your support, your prayers, and for being part of this project and community. It is a blessing to walk beside you.

In the Peace of Christ,

Fr. Cadmus Mazzarella, Pastor

Saint of the Week

Cosmas and Damian, Physicians and Martyrs, early Fourth Century

According to legend, Cosmas and Damian were twin brothers born in Arabia. They studied medicine in Syria and later became widely known for their medical skills which they offered, without charge, to all. Because of their charities, they were known in their time as the "moneyless ones." They gained the love and respect of the people to whom they ministered, both for their medical assistance and the zeal of their Christian faith.

During the persecution under the Emperor Diocletian, Cosmas and Damian, together with three brothers, Anthimus, Leontius, and Euprepius, were arrested, tried, and beheaded for their faith. Over the years following their deaths, many people reported miracles that occurred in the names of Cosmas and Damian. Among them was the Emperor Justinian I, who attributed his cure from a serious illness to these saints. In thankfulness, the emperor enlarged a church which had been built on the site of the saints' burial place.

Cosmas and Damian are patrons of physicians and surgeons, along with Saint Luke. An optional memorial celebrates the lives of these saints on September 26.

Cosmas and Damian's message today: The two brothers completely embraced and lived the Christian life. This was particularly exemplified by their unselfish behavior in caring for the sick. We are not asked to give nearly so much of ourselves as Cosmas and Damian did, but we are asked to give something.

Think about volunteering some of your time to a local hospital or nursing home.

Reflections on the Readings

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I: Ezekiel 18:25-28

- Turn from what is sinful to what is just and right.

Reading II: Philippians 2:1-11

- The Letter to the Philippians presents Christ as the perfect example of obedience.
- The model, then, that Paul held up for Christian behavior was the model of the obedient Son.

Gospel: Matthew 21:28-32

- In today's parable, Jesus compares two sons to two groups of people. The first group spoke piously but did nothing; the second group included sinners who eventually acted in faith and repentance.

PARISH RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM

Our Parish has a few choices for anyone wishing to receive their sacraments and become Catholic:

CHILDREN: 1st-8th graders have two choices:

⇒ SCHOOL YEAR FAMILY CATECHESIS which meets once a month to review lessons completed at home

⇒ SUMMER INTENSIVE during two weeks of July, Monday through Friday from 8:30AM to 12:00PM

TEENS: 9th-12th graders. Will be decided on an individual basis, depending on the level of instruction needed

ADULTS will be entered into the Parish's OCIA Program. (See info about OCIA on the "Sacraments" page of this bulletin.)
