

Notre Dame de la Mer Parish

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 18, 2026

Our Lady of Fatima repeatedly asked the shepherd children to pray the Rosary everyday in order to bring peace to the world and an end to war.

FOR GENERATIONS TO COME REFURBISHMENT & REVITALIZATION CAMPAIGN

WE ARE ON OUR WAY

$265,268

Thank you to everyone who donated or pledged to our campaign. Your continued generosity brings us closer to reaching our financial goal.

35.37% of our $750,000 goal reached!

Thank you for being a part of Notre Dame de la Mer Catholic Community and for supporting the work of the Church with your time, talent, and treasure. Your presence and your contributions are a true blessing.

We are all blessed to have such beautiful churches and after many wonderful years of worship, prayer, and the sacraments, we are now asking for help to address immediate concerns. The years have taken a toll on many parts of both our churches, and this refurbishment and revitalization campaign is asking for assistance with the most urgent needs to enable Notre Dame de la Mer Parish to continue to provide a comfortable and beautiful environment.

No vision this big comes without a price, but we believe that by praying and working together, we can build something great, not for our glory, but for God's. If we are to build what is needed to support our growing faith family and do the work of our Church for years to come, we will need everyone in our community to make an additional, significant, financial sacrifice, just as those who have gone before us.

Consider the story of the widow's mite from Luke 21:1-4. In this parable, Jesus speaks of rich people contributing their gifts to the offertory, followed by a poor widow who gave two small coins. Jesus viewed her contribution as a sacrificial gift because she truly felt the impact in her daily life.

Thank you for your support, your prayers, and for being part of this project and community. It is a blessing to walk beside you.

In the Peace of Christ,

Fr. Cadmus Mazzarella, Pastor

- In Memoriam -

Photographs of Loved Ones on Altar Steps

Please bring to the Mass of Remembrance photos of your deceased loved ones to place on the altar steps during Mass. Please put the name of your loved one, your name, and your phone number on the back of each photo. If you want a photo included but cannot attend the Mass please bring it to the Parish Office by Wednesday, October 28th. If you have any questions, please call Pat Monaghan at 610-246-1079.

Names of Loved Ones Written on Altar Cloth

On November 2, you will see a white altar cloth in the back of the Church on which you may write the names of deceased loved ones with markers provided. This altar cloth will be used at St. Ann Church during November in memory of all the faithful departed of the Parish, especially those whose names are written on the altar cloth.

Reflections on the Readings

Reading I: Isaiah 45:1, 4-6 I have called you by name.

- ❖ When Israel was exiled in Babylon, the people found it difficult to understand how God could allow them to be captives in a strange land.
- ❖ Isaiah comforts the people with the message that God would use another nation and another leader to restore the people to their own land.
- ❖ God called Cyrus, the Persian leader, to defeat the Babylonians and to give the Jews permission to return and rebuild Jerusalem and its surroundings.

Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b We thank God for your faith!

- ❖ Paul's greeting to the Thessalonians marks the beginning of his thanksgiving to God for their fervent response to his preaching.
- ❖ Thessalonica was a crucial place for spreading the Gospel throughout Macedonia.
- ❖ Paul is thankful that the Church is flourishing.

Gospel: Matthew 22:15-21 Keep your priorities clear.

- ❖ Today's passage from Matthew's Gospel is the first of four stories about Jesus' conflict with the Jewish authorities.
- ❖ The Pharisees try to trap Jesus with a question about paying taxes.
- ❖ Jesus refuses to answer the question on the level that it is presented to him, instead he raises the discussion to a higher level; teaching that in all cases, our responsibility to God is primary.

PSALM 138

Saint of the Week

St. Luke, Evangelist First Century

Luke is the author of the third Gospel and of the Acts of the Apostles. He was the only Gentile Christian among the four Evangelists and his Gospel, written in Greek, was unquestionably written for Gentile Christians. Tradition has him as a Greek-born, from Antioch. Saint Paul called Luke "our beloved physician" (Col 4:14) and Luke was known to have traveled with Paul on his second and third missionary expeditions in Greece and Rome. He also accompanied Paul on the dangerous journey to Rome, where Paul wrote, "only Luke is with me" (2 Tim 4:11). During Paul's imprisonment in Caesarea around the years 61 to 63, Luke probably did his research on the life of Christ and had the opportunity to interview people who had known Jesus. The Acts of the Apostles, the story of the growth of the Church under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, was probably written during this period as well. Luke's Gospel, sometimes called the "Gospel of the Poor" or the "Gospel of Mercy," is thought to have been written sometime between 70 and 90 and may have been written in Greece.

One early legend has Luke as the artist of several paintings of Mary. While there is no hard evidence to support it, it is very likely that Luke did visit Mary in Jerusalem while seeking information about Jesus. Much of the infancy narrative and the finding of Jesus in the Temple could only have come from someone like Mary.

Luke is the patron saint of artists, brewers, butchers, glass workers, notaries, painters, and physicians. A feast honors this saint on October 18.

Luke's message today:

Like the other Evangelists, Luke's message is with us today as it has been throughout the history of the Church. They have given us the Gospels, which enable us to learn about Jesus' life and ministry. Further, the Acts of the Apostles give us grounding in the work of the Holy Spirit in the early Church.

Reflection:

Are you familiar with Luke's Infancy Narrative (1:5-2:38)? Read this beautiful story again and reflect on its relation to your life today.

PARISH RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM

Our Parish has a few choices for anyone wishing to receive their sacraments and become Catholic:

CHILDREN: 1st-8th graders have two choices:

⇒ SCHOOL YEAR FAMILY CATECHESIS which meets once a month to review lessons completed at home

⇒ SUMMER INTENSIVE during two weeks of July, Monday through Friday from 8:30AM to 12:00PM

TEENS: 9th-12th graders. Will be decided on an individual basis, depending on the level of instruction needed

ADULTS will be entered into the Parish's OCIA Program. (See info about OCIA on the "Sacraments" page of this bulletin.)

Dear Men of NDDLM,

We are asking the men of our parish to join us for the annual Man Up South Jersey Conference being held at PAUL VI HIGH SCHOOL | CONFERENCE CENTER 901 HOPKINS ROAD | HADDONFIELD, NJ NOVEMBER 14, 2026, | 7:30 - 3:30

In response to the bishop in his desire to fill all 904 seats at Paul VI, this year Cape May and Atlantic Counties have been challenged to send more men to the conference than the Camden and Gloucester Counties. The challenge has been named the "Cape Atlantic Challenge." Let's pack the house with Notre Dame de la Mer men!

Please register at: MANUPSOUTHJERSEY.COM

Breakfast and lunch will be served. Speakers include Deacon(s) Harold Burke-Sivers, Anthony Cioe and Curtis Martin, who are inspiring and great to listen too. There will also be time in prayer. Strengthen your soul and connect with God and other men.

Every man can receive a complimentary t-shirt to wear to the event. If you wish to have one, please complete the form at the back of the church today.

Please register by email once you register so carpools can be arranged. Deadline for this is 11/7 to make sure we have drivers.
