For Generations to Come
Refurbishment & Revitalization Campaign

WE ARE ON OUR WAY

$267,228

Thank you to everyone who donated or pledged to our campaign. Your continued generosity brings us closer to reaching our financial goal.

35.60% of our $750,000 goal reached!

Thank you for being a part of Notre Dame de la Mer Catholic Community and for supporting the work of the Church with your time, talent, and treasure. Your presence and your contributions are a true blessing.

We are all blessed to have such beautiful churches and after many wonderful years of worship, prayer, and the sacraments, we are now asking for help to address immediate concerns. The years have taken a toll on many parts of both our churches, and this refurbishment and revitalization campaign is asking for assistance with the most urgent needs to enable Notre Dame de la Mer Parish to continue to provide a comfortable and beautiful environment.

No vision this big comes without a price, but we believe that by praying and working together, we can build something great, not for our glory, but for God's. If we are to build what is needed to support our growing faith family and do the work of our Church for years to come, we will need everyone in our community to make an additional, significant, financial sacrifice, just as those who have gone before us.

Consider the story of the widow's mite from Luke 21:1-4. In this parable, Jesus speaks of rich people contributing their gifts to the offertory, followed by a poor widow who gave two small coins. Jesus viewed her contribution as a sacrificial gift because she truly felt the impact in her daily life.

Thank you for your support, your prayers, and for being part of this project and community. It is a blessing to walk beside you.

In the Peace of Christ,
Fr. Cadmus Mazzarella, Pastor

Reflections on the Readings

Reading I : Exodus 22:20-26 - Take care to be just, especially to widows and the poor.

- ❖ Exodus 20-23 consists primarily of laws.
- ❖ Today's passage reminds the Israelites to care for the poor and vulnerable in their midst.
- ❖ Any mistreatment of the vulnerable people in the society would be interpreted as a direct affront to God.

Reading II : 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10 - Your faith is an example for others.

- ❖ Paul's thanksgiving for the faith of the Thessalonians continues in today's passage.
- ❖ The Thessalonians have endured with joy the suffering brought by faithfulness to God's Law.
- ❖ As a result, they have become, in their turn, models of faith for the rest of the Near East.

Gospel : Matthew 22:34-40 - The great commandment.

- ❖ The discussion of the Law in today's Gospel is one of the four conflict stories in this section of Matthew.
- ❖ A scribe attempts to trap Jesus with the question: "What is the greatest commandment of the Law"?
- ❖ Jesus answers by quoting two passages from the Hebrew Scriptures: the command to love God from Deuteronomy 6:5, and the command to love their neighbor from Leviticus 19:18.

Parish Ministries & Information

Betania XXII Prayer Group-All are Invited to Attend

Our Parish will begin a new Marian Prayer Group, Betania XXII, on November 4th at 5:30pm in Assumption Church. This prayer group will meet every other Wednesday to pray the rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, Psalm 91, and the Magnificat of Mary. It will also include spiritual topics for discussion.

The Betania XXII prayer group is rooted in the approved apparitions that took place in Betania Venezuela to first privately to visionary Servant of God Maria Esperanza. Then publicly on March 25, 1984, when Maria and approximately 150 people of diverse backgrounds.

Our Lady identified herself as "Mary, Virgin and Mother Reconciler of All Peoples and Nations" and called for reconciliation, conversion, the Rosary, and prayer for the world. Her overall message called for deepening faith through Scripture; conversion from sin; apostolic commitment; prayer (especially the Rosary) for the Church, priests, vocations, conversion of sinners, and world peace; frequent reception of the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Holy Communion; and solidarity with the poor, the sick, and the abandoned.

Bishop Pio Bello Ricardo of the Diocese of Los Teques formally investigated the apparitions following the great public apparition of March 25, 1984. On November 21, 1987, Bishop Ricardo issued his Pastoral Instruction declaring the Finca Betania apparitions "authentic, of supernatural character and divine origin." He declared Finca Betania a sacred site for Catholic worship, authorizing pilgrimages, prayer gatherings, Mass, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and Holy Communion at the site. It is one of the fastest approved apparitions in the Church!

Our prayer group is the 22nd Betania prayer group around the world, joining the 21 others in the pillars of Prayer, Meditation, Penance, and the Eucharist. We invite individuals, families, young adults, teens and children of all ages to attend. Fr. Mazz will be the spiritual leader of this ministry, and we hope you can join us on Wednesday November 4th. Our second meeting will then be on November 18th.

PSALM 138

Saint of the Week

Jude, Apostle
c. First Century

Judas Thaddeus, called Jude to distinguish him from Judas Iscariot, is often regarded as the brother of the Apostle, Saint James the Less. Other than a mention in the listing of the Apostles in the Gospels, there is only one reference to Jude anywhere in the New Testament. At the Last Supper, Jesus tells the Apostles that he will reveal himself to them. Jude then asked him, "Master, what happened that you will reveal yourself to us and not to the world?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him." (Jn 15:23).

There are some rich traditions and some conflicting accounts about Saint Jude which have come down to us over the centuries. One of the stories comes to us from Eusebius, an early Church historian. It concerns a young Middle Eastern prince, Abgar, who had written to Jesus during his ministry. Abgar invited him to come to visit his domain, a small principality in present day Iraq. Declining the invitation, Jesus, promised to send one of his disciples instead. So, after the Ascension, Jude made his way to Abgar's capitol, Edessa, where, he learned that Abgar was dying from an incurable disease.

As was the custom at the time, when Jude arrived in this new, unevangelized territory, he first preached to the Jews of that territory while staying at the house of one of the Jews, Tobias. When Abgar heard about the wonders which Jude was performing, he sent for Tobias and asked about Jude. Believing this to be his messenger from Jesus, he asked that Jude call on him. In speaking with Jude, Abgar became convinced that Jude was sent by Jesus and told him of his own faith in Jesus and his Father. Jude then cured Abgar and went on to convert many in the principality.

Jude later went into Armenia where he preached and then, with Simon the Zealot, into Persia (Iran) where they made many converts. It was here that the two Apostles met their martyrdom by being stoned to death.

Saint Jude is the patron saint of lost causes and hopeless cases. Many minor as well as major miracles have occurred through his intercession. The entertainer, Danny Thomas, was out of work for a long period before praying to Saint Jude. Soon after that prayer, he found work. Several years later, in thanksgiving, he endowed Saint Jude's Children's Hospital where modern miracles take place on a routine basis.

Because of their common martyrdom, Saint Jude and Saint Simon share a feast day on October 28.

Jude's message today: In a vision to Saint Bridget of Sweden, Jesus noted that Jude would "show himself most willing to help." Many people who have called on Saint Jude, like Danny Thomas, have found work after extended unemployment. Others with terminal illnesses have recovered after turning to Saint Jude.

When you have reached the end of your rope and all seems lost, say a prayer to Saint Jude. He will help you too.

PAUL VI HIGH SCHOOL | CONFERENCE CENTER
901 HOPKINS ROAD | HADDONFIELD, NJ
NOVEMBER 14, 2026, | 7:30 - 3:30
In response to the bishop in his desire to fill all 904 seats at Paul VI, this year Cape May and Atlantic Counties have been challenged to send more men to the conference than the Camden and Gloucester Counties. The challenge has been named the "Cape Atlantic Challenge." Let's pack the house with Notre Dame de la Mer men!

Please register at: MANUPSOUTHJERSEY.COM

Breakfast and lunch will be served. Speakers include Deacon(s) Harold Burke-Sivers, Anthony Cioe and Curtis Martin, who are inspiring and great to listen too. There will also be time in prayer. Strengthen your soul and connect with God and other men.

Every man can receive a complimentary t-shirt to wear to the event. If you wish to have one, please complete the form at the back of the church today.

Please register by email once you register so carpools can be arranged. Deadline for this is 11/7 to make sure we have drivers.
