For Generations to Come
Refurbishment & Revitalization Campaign

WE ARE ON OUR WAY $277,777

Thank you to everyone who donated or pledged to our campaign. Your continued generosity brings us closer to reaching our financial goal.

37% of our $750,000 goal reached!

Thank you for being a part of Notre Dame de la Mer Catholic Community and for supporting the work of the Church with your time, talent, and treasure. Your presence and your contributions are a true blessing.

We are all blessed to have such beautiful churches and after many wonderful years of worship, prayer, and the sacraments, we are now asking for help to address immediate concerns. The years have taken a toll on many parts of both our churches, and this refurbishment and revitalization campaign is asking for assistance with the most urgent needs to enable Notre Dame de la Mer Parish to continue to provide a comfortable and beautiful environment.

No vision this big comes without a price, but we believe that by praying and working together, we can build something great, not for our glory, but for God's. If we are to build what is needed to support our growing faith family and do the work of our Church for years to come, we will need everyone in our community to make an additional, significant, financial sacrifice, just as those who have gone before us.

Consider the story of the widow's mite from Luke 21:1-4. In this parable, Jesus speaks of rich people contributing their gifts to the offertory, followed by a poor widow who gave two small coins. Jesus viewed her contribution as a sacrificial gift because she truly felt the impact in her daily life.

Thank you for your support, your prayers, and for being part of this project and community. It is a blessing to walk beside you.

In the Peace of Christ,
Fr. Cadmus Mazzarella, Pastor

MAN UP SOUTH JERSEY

Dear Men of NDDLM,
We are asking the men of our parish to join us for the annual Man Up South Jersey Conference being held at
PAUL VI HIGH SCHOOL | CONFERENCE CENTER
901 HOPKINS ROAD | HADDONFIELD, NJ
NOVEMBER 14, 2026, | 7:30 - 3:30
In response to the bishop in his desire to fill all 904 seats at Paul VI, this year Cape May and Atlantic Counties have been challenged to send more men to the conference than the Camden and Gloucester Counties. The challenge has been named the "Cape Atlantic Challenge." Let's pack the house with Notre Dame de la Mer men!

Please register at: MANUPSOUTHJERSEY.COM

Breakfast and lunch will be served. Speakers include Deacon(s) Harold Burke-Sivers, Anthony Cioe and Curtis Martin, who are inspiring and great to listen too. There will also be time in prayer. Strengthen your soul and connect with God and other men.

Every man can receive a complimentary t-shirt to wear to the event. If you wish to have one, please complete the form at the back of the church today.

Please register by email once you register so carpools can be arranged. Deadline for this is 11/7 to make sure we have drivers. Chuch Mirarchi

Reflections on the Readings

Reading I : Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14 We are made clean in Christ's death and Resurrection.

- The first reading from the book of Revelation speaks of the ones who have become the saints.
- It gives a great vision, meant symbolically, of what Heaven is like when the angels and saints gather at God's throne.

Reading II : 1 John 3:1-3 We are God's children.

- John reminds us that we are God's children, in a unique and special way.
- And yet, even though we are already children of God, we look forward to what is still to come.
- John describes that time as light, when we shall all see God.

Gospel : Matthew 5:1-12 The Beatitudes

- Here Jesus describes the life of a saint as one filled with blessings.
- But the blessings are not necessarily what the world would consider good.
- Saints are those whom God has chosen and blessed with his gifts.

Parish Ministries & Information

Betania XXII Prayer Group-All are Invited to Attend

Our Parish will begin a new Marian Prayer Group, Betania XXII, on November 4th at 5:30pm in Assumption Church. This prayer group will meet every other Wednesday to pray the rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, Psalm 91, and the Magnificat of Mary. It will also include spiritual topics for discussion.

The Betania XXII prayer group is rooted in the approved apparitions that took place in Betania Venezuela to first privately to visionary Servant of God Maria Esperanza. Then publicly on March 25, 1984, when Maria and approximately 150 people of diverse backgrounds.

Our Lady identified herself as "Mary, Virgin and Mother Reconciler of All Peoples and Nations" and called for reconciliation, conversion, the Rosary, and prayer for the world. Her overall message called for deepening faith through Scripture; conversion from sin; apostolic commitment; prayer (especially the Rosary) for the Church, priests, vocations, conversion of sinners, and world peace; frequent reception of the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Holy Communion; and solidarity with the poor, the sick, and the abandoned.

Bishop Pio Bello Ricardo of the Diocese of Los Teques formally investigated the apparitions following the great public apparition of March 25, 1984. On November 21, 1987, Bishop Ricardo issued his Pastoral Instruction declaring the Finca Betania apparitions "authentic, of supernatural character and divine origin." He declared Finca Betania a sacred site for Catholic worship, authorizing pilgrimages, prayer gatherings, Mass, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and Holy Communion at the site. It is one of the fastest approved apparitions in the Church!

Our prayer group is the 22nd Betania prayer group around the world, joining the 21 others in the pillars of Prayer, Meditation, Penance, and the Eucharist. We invite individuals, families, young adults, teens and children of all ages to attend. Fr. Mazz will be the spiritual leader of this ministry, and we hope you can join us on Wednesday November 4th. Our second meeting will then be on November 18th.

PSALM 138

Saint of the Week

Solemnity of All Saints
Simon, Apostle and Martyr,
c. First Century

Perhaps the least known of the Apostles, Simon is only mentioned in the lists contained in the Gospels. Matthew, Mark and Luke all refer tothis saint as "Simon the Zealot." This has caused some scholars to link him with the Zealot faction, a radical first-century revolutionary organization which sought to eliminate Roman rule by terrorism. It is entirely possible that, in his younger days, Simon had been a member of this group, but its philosophy would hardly fit with the Christian principles which the Apostles were learning and teaching. Equally possible, Simon could have earned his nickname by his dedication and zealous support of Jesus Christ.

Simon is said to have been among the first of the Apostles to carry the Word to distant lands. He might well have been among the seventy-two who were sent ahead by Jesus to preach in the towns where Jesus would stop on his final journey to Jerusalem (Lk 10). If this were the case, Simon would have been one of the Apostles with some experience in teaching when the Apostles begin their own ministries.

Since he received no mention in the Acts of the Apostles which largely concentrated on the activities of the Apostles around Jerusalem and the eastern Mediterranean, Simon may have begun his missionary work among the Jews of Egypt. He may then have worked his way westward through Libya and into present-day Tunisia. There is some evidence that Simon then took the Word to Britain where Christianity seems to have been introduced before the Romans established the island as a colony in the year 43.

Tradition tells us that Simon joined Jude Thaddeus in Persia around the year 66. Together, these two saints converted thousands to Christianity over the next several years, but they also made powerful enemies. The pagan leaders in that region finally mustered a mob to stone the two Apostles to death. It is told that when the mob approached the two old men, Jude turned to Simon and said, "The Lord is calling us."

A feast honors this saint along with his companion, St. Jude, on October 28.

Simon's message today: Whatever the origin of Simon's nickname, we can believe that he was ardent in his preaching the Word of God. This passion carried him from almost one end of the known world to the other. While we are not asked to travel to the ends of the earth preaching the Word of God, we can set an example of Christian living for all of those with whom we come in contact.

Would your co-workers know you were Christian by the way you conduct yourself? By the language you use?

Wildwood Catholic Academy

PreK to 12th Grade 609-522-7257

Wildwood Catholic Academy is Pleased to Announce the Sister St. Gervase 2026-2027 School Year Scholarship Recipients

Through the generosity of our former, long-time, esteemed English teacher, William (Bill) Waters, several students have been granted a scholarship in honor of Sister St. Gervase, SSJ, which has assisted them in attending Wildwood Catholic Academy.

The Sisters of St. Joseph of Philadelphia is the religious order of sisters that, for many decades, was the heart and soul of Wildwood Catholic. One of the many marvelous nuns who taught at Wildwood Catholic was Sister St. Gervase, who was assigned to Wildwood Catholic from September 1978 until June 1983. Sadly, she died on September 17, 2020. Because of Covid-19, Sister's obituary was not widely published and her funeral was private. Below is the obituary printed several months after her passing in the order's newsletter:

Sister St. Gervase Glackin went home to God on September 17, 2020, two weeks after her 91st birthday. A resident of St. Joseph Villa since 2014, Sister's liturgy and funeral followed at the Villa on September 22. The second oldest of seven children, Mary Angela, lost her father when she was just eight years old. Her mother, Mary Glackin, wanted a good education for the young children and enrolled six of the children in St. Joseph Academy in McSherrytown, PA, a boarding school owned by the Sisters of St. Joseph. The youngest Glackin child, Charles, remains.

Strongly influenced by the spirit and dedication of the Sisters at the Academy, young Mary Angela entered the Novitiate in September 1946. Her first ministry, teaching elementary school children in various grades, schools and dioceses, lasted for twenty years. Subsequent ministry in secondary education allowed her to share her love for reading and writing and to introduce them to authors, especially English writers. She often accompanied groups of students to London where they, too, enjoyed all things British. Summers also allowed Sister to pursue opportunities for offering volunteer services in New York and even in California, in various capacities.

Her ministry, later on, included teaching college students, including stints at Drexel and Villanova Universities and Community College of Philadelphia. In 2002, Sister St. Gervase became coordinator of Outreach at St. John Church in Philadelphia before accepting an invitation to assist students with reading and writing skills in the English department at Neumann-Goretti High School. After a brief time, volunteering at Mount Saint Joseph Convent, Sister St. Gervase took up residence at the Villa, often sharing readings of published poets. She enjoyed writing her own poems for special occasions and shared them as well. Truly a unique and creative spirit, St. Gervase will be fondly remembered.

Sister St. Gervase left a lasting impression on many of the over 600 Wildwood Catholic students she encountered during her five academic years spent laboring at the school. She was an inspired teacher of British literature and writing skills and started Wildwood Catholic's very first AP course (AP English Literature and Composition). She held "high tea" for her students at the convent, donned special attire to confer knighthood on famous British writers from the past, and took students and some parents on literary trips to England. To quote one of her English department colleagues, "Her life was marked by exuberance in the classroom and a passion for service in the outside world."

To honor the memory of Sister St. Gervase, the following AP English Language and Composition students have been awarded a scholarship:

Santiago Chavez Gerald Garrison Ashe O'Donnell

Our thanks to Mr. Waters for sponsoring this generous scholarship in memory of Sister St. Gervase. May Sister's love of all things "English" and her passion for service be an inspiration to our students
